AN INTRODUCTION

This pamphlet is designed for all students of international relations and political science as a handy reference source to the names of current leaders in the world today. It may also be used as a guide to national capitals and the participants in major international alliances.

The listings have been compiled with the greatest care to insure accuracy. The editors have used the world's leading news sources and periodicals, as well as government information agencies, in compiling the data.

The pamphlet tabulates governments in power as of September 1, 1957 and lists only independent and semi-independent countries.

In most instances, the listings follow accepted protocol order and they are alphabetized for the convenience of the reader. The spellings of foreign names are American in pattern.

This pamphlet will be published four times a year, the next issue to appear on December 1, 1957. If you would like the second number, please complete the order blank on page 27.

Please note the following abbreviations used throughout the pamphlet:

ALArab League
BP Baghdad Pact
BCNBritish Commonwealth of Nations
ESCCEuropean Steel and Coal Community
NATONorth Atlantic Treaty Organization
OAS Organization of American States

SEATO.....Southeast Asia Treaty
Organization

UN.....United Nations
WP.....Warsaw Pact

The editors are deeply indebted and offer their grateful thanks to the panel of advisers--Professors Barclay, Buck, Hilton, and Steiner--for their assistance and encouragement in this project. Our similar appreciation is extended to the many others who have aided in the research and distribution of the pamphlet.
